Proven to boost national test results

In a study conducted by a leading university, when Matific ran a national competition, participating schools test results were statistically significantly higher than national test results. Overall, a Matific powered national mathematics contest was found to have positive association between online activity and learning.

Matific competition really helped our students' improve their results. The intensive exposure to various topics during a short period of time promoted learning and motivated students.

Principal, India

The competition at our school is a real celebration! And the learning achieved is higher than at any other time of the year.

Principal, Australia

Thank you for a great competition and unparalleled mathematical enjoyment
